

NOMINATION FORM

2009 CONSERVATION FARMER OF THE YEAR AWARD

All Central West, Lachlan, Murray and Murrumbidgee Catchment farmers are eligible to enter the competition or be nominated by another farmer or extension officer and should do so by completing the nomination form below. Please include a resume (no more than one page – if possible) of your farming program including rotations, machinery and conservation techniques used. Regional winners will be selected from the Tablelands, Slopes and Plains areas within these Catchments. These winners will act as finalists for the Conservation Farmer of the Year, which will be announced at our Annual Conference on July 29, 2009 in Dubbo.
